

West Palms Events adds LA Equestrian Festival to its agenda.

West Palms Events' 2016 show season will kick off with the LA Equestrian Festival, April 20-24, at the Los Angeles Equestrian Center. The West Palms Events' team is very excited to be expanding its venues in Los Angeles.

The show will be a part of the GGT Footing Grand Prix Series, and it will also include a full hunter, jumper and equitation schedule. The show will provide competitors with many special classes, events and activities as well.

"We are ecstatic to begin a new show at the LA Equestrian Center," said Marketing and Event Manager Danielle Ballard of West Palms Events. "It's an exciting time to start a brand new show and we are very much looking forward to expanding West Palms' venues again in the New Year!"

LAEC is accessible from two major freeways, and is minutes away from top Los Angeles hotels, dining and other attractions. Yet, as soon as you drive through the arched gateway, you are in another world: a lush, secluded equestrian paradise designed to accommodate equestrian events of any type and size. Show rings, training rings, grass fields, permanent show stalls and the immense covered 3,500-seat Equidome ensure plenty of room for hosting events.
