

Bidding for breedings with top sporthorse genetics starts Feb. 20

Looking for the right stallion, at the right price, for the 2019 breeding season? The Westfalen Verband North America's annual Stallion Service Auction opens for bidding February 20 and runs through 8 p.m. Eastern, Sunday March 3. This auction always offers superior quality and variety of stallions, both Warmblood and German Riding Pony, with an interesting mix of trendy young stallions and well-proven stars. The auction site is user friendly and easy to navigate, with full pedigrees, photos and videos, along with links to the stallions' websites. Don't miss the final registry Stallion Service Auction of the season!

