The Organizing Committee of the 2017 Adequan/FEI North American Junior & Young Rider Championships (NAJYRC) presented by Gotham North is pleased to confirm the dates and locations of the 2017 Championships following approval from the FEI.

HITS-on-the-Hudson in Saugerties, NY, will host the disciplines of dressage, para-dressage and jumping July 18-23. Rebecca Farm in Kalispell, MT, will host eventing July 20-23. With unwavering support, Adequan will mark its seventh consecutive year as title sponsor of the event.

“We are very excited to be able to host the 2017 Adequan/FEI North American Junior & Young Rider Championships presented by Gotham North at two beautiful venues,” said USEF CEO Bill Moroney. “NAJYRC is an important Championship for the future of equestrian sport, giving many top riders their first experiences in international competition. The wonderful support of Adequan, Gotham North, and all of our sponsors make the event possible.”

Supporting the only FEI Championship held annually in North America, NAJYRC is lucky to have a long list of dedicated sponsors, which include: Adequan, Gotham North, U.S. Hunter Jumper Association, U.S. Dressage Association, U.S. Eventing Association, Equine Canada, and the Mexican Equestrian Federation.
