

New equitation class with Paris perk for high scorer and their trainer.

Sonoma Horse Park introduces Les Talents Hermès, a unique equitation competition offering three separate sections: 3'3", 3' and Pony. Les Talents Hermès will take place on September 22- 23 at SHP Season Finale. Each section features one round on Saturday and one round and a work-off on Sunday. A welcome dinner and draw for order of go will be hosted in the VIP on Friday, September 21.

Prizes for each section include a show coat and blanket for the winner, both by Hermès, and a Hermès awards for the second through fourth placed finishers, plus custom ribbons through the top 10.

The rider with highest combined score from Rounds 1 and 2, as well as his or her trainer, will be awarded a pair of VIP tickets to the 10th Annual Saut Hermès horse show March 22-24, 2019. Hosted at the magnificent Grand Palais in the heart of Paris, Saut Hermès brings together the 50 best horses and riders along with 20 promising young riders to compete in this 5-star international show jumping competition. Included is a four-night stay at the Marriott Champs-Elysées, a 5-star hotel located around the corner from Saut Hermès and a $2,000 gift card for travel and expenses.

February 2018 - Les Talents Hermès

Written by CRM

Wednesday, 31 January 2018 21:40

Sonoma Horse Park is thrilled to offer Les Talents Hermès to amateur, junior and pony equitation riders. The venue's prize list for its eight-week circuit is available at www.sonomahorsepark.com with detailed specifications for this competition.

Press release provided by Sonoma Horse Park. For more information, visit www.sonomahorsepark.com.