Andrew Kocher has a busy and successful night in the Grand Prix ring.

The Memorial Day Classic, held May 21-24 at the Los Angeles Equestrian Center, was quite the memorable weekend. The Grand Prix was definitely one for the books as 12 horse-and-rider teams battled it out for the win in the jump-off, with Kristin Hardin and Andrew Kocher trading off the lead as they tried to outdo one another.

Andrew Kocher had a night to remember at the $25,000 Memorial Day Grand Prix, riding seven horses in the first round and placing first, fourth, seventh and ninth overall. "I'm so proud of all the horses I rode," Andrew said. "They were all great. Going into the ring, I knew my best shot at winning was either with Ufarno (BTS Entertainment and Sales, owner), Ciana (Eagle Valley Partner, owner), or Lady Sparkle (Equiinvest Loupinge, owner)."
