

Texas C3 Realty, LLC

As a long time resident of Delhi, Texas, I love the country lifestyle. Living here has allowed me to create a network of connections not only in Caldwell County but as well in Bastrop, Gonzales and Hays counties. When I joined with Texas C3 Realty, LLC, it was to improve and promote the growth within Central Texas. Entrusting with me with your Real Estate needs, I can assure you I will always advocate in your best interest.

As a daughter and a mother of a veteran, I believe in giving back. I am a certified Veteran Specialist in Realty. Aligning myself to serve our country's most important men and women at home in the USA. I am a very active community volunteer with the Volunteer Fire Departments in our County. Keeping connected with my community by serving in many capacities within the Community Center and Church. I appreciate a challenge, being a part of something bigger than myself.

I operate on a basic principle: treat others as you would like to be treated yourself. In this regard I value honesty and loyalty, both go hand in hand in Real Estate.

As your agent I will communicate with you on the latest changes in the market. My job is to make the transaction of buying or selling a property as smooth and stress free as possible for you, my client. I believe in treating my clients like family because your referral is my best compliment. My personal goal is helping you find your dream property.
